SECTION TWO – Verification of Course Work

I promise to complete the course work independent of anyone else, except in the instance of tutoring, coaching or mentoring. If other sources are used for course work content or completion, or if other individuals help with course assignments, I will appropriately cite those instances and individuals after obtaining specific permission from the instructor and/or a representative from the Academic Offices of Crossroads College. The course work I represent as my own will be completed by me.

SECTION THREE – Church Membership and Christian Service

I am an active participant of a local congregation, involved in Christian service at the church or another ministry organization during each term of enrollment at Crossroads College. If there is any change in my status as member or if my involvement at the congregation or organization changes, I will notify the Academic Offices of Crossroads College to update the information. It is the expectation that every student, staff and professor of Crossroads College is actively engaged with their local congregation on a regular basis.
